¹ 'Best Across' awards are issued to learners who have achieved a minimum of either grade A and have attained the first highest cumulative total standard marks over set number of subjects*

celebrate the success of high-performing Cambridge learners, but they are also an appreciation of the journey involving all the stakeholders and their efforts which culminated as this accomplishment.

During the pandemic, the teaching/learning journey was redefined, redesigned, and had a complete overhaul. I would like to congratulate all the winners and those involved in making this global experiment successful”.

The awards provide an opportunity to recognise the hard work, dedication and outstanding achievements of the very best Cambridge students around the world. The achievements of those who won awards this year are especially impressive, as many of them have had to adapt how they learn when schools were closed, and teaching and learning couldn't take place face-to-face in a classroom.
